Mantels with trumeau in stone

Limestone fireplace with trumeau, a classic Louis XIII mantelpiece

This elegant stone fireplace with over-mantel is inspired by the classic Louis XIII style (17th Century). Carved by hand in stone of Estaillades (limestone from Provence), it features a pair of slightly curved jambs decorated with engravings, a straight and massive lintel with wide moldings on its upper and lower parts, a molded tablet, a trumeau in dressed stone with a carved embossed frame in its center and a wide finely molded cornice. Hand-crafted in Provence.
