

Large French Regency fireplace carved in Burgundy limestone

This beautiful Regency-style fireplace is carved in a natural stone from Burgundy. Handcrafted, it shows a thin molded tablet supported by a headband hand-sculpted with a sumptuous shell and 2 cartridges. The top of the jambs are adorned with carved acanthus leaves. The 2 slightly curved jambs are thin and molded. This thick mold continues along the lowered arch lintel, thus enclosing the entire perimeter of the hearth.
