

Beautiful French Regency fireplace with trumeau in a stone of Provence

This amazing mantelpiece carved by hand in a natural limestone of Provence (the Pierre de Lens) is crafted by our experienced stone-cutters in Provence. Inspired by the French Regency style (characterized by a sculpted shell on the lintel). The jambs are carved with carriages. The wide shelf is molded. The trumeau is carved with rounded angles and features a molded frame in its center. The cornice is fine and molded.
