Small wall fountains in stone

Wall fountain carved in a white French limestone : Coquille MM

This wall-mounted fountain "Shell Medium Model" is tall and slender. It is hand-carved in the Avy stone (a frost resistant natural French limestone) and features a large protruding monolithic basin (or bowl) that rests on a solid molded foot. The recessed pediment is adorned with hand-sculpted grooves ending in Corinthian columns, and a beautiful shell carved by hand. An overhanging flat and molded cornice tops it all.
